Associate Pastor vacancy

Thornbury Baptist Church are looking for a new Associate Pastor, to work as part of the church's leadership team to oversee the continuing development of the church and its activities.

We are looking for a person who is:

- Committed to personal prayer and growth as a disciple of Jesus.
- Open to accountability for matters of personal life and the practice of ministry.
- Committed to working within a team structure.
- Warm and easy-going in relating to others, both within the church and outside.
- Experienced in local church leadership.
- Well-grounded in the Bible, ideally with some formal Bible-college training.
- Capable of creative thinking about the shape of church, especially in regards to reaching younger generations.
- Experienced in envisioning and equipping 'everyday disciples' for whole-life mission.

This is a full-time role (though part-time might be considered).

Starting date: January 2022 or earlier by agreement.

For more details or to express an interest please contact Paul Ferguson (paul@thornburybaptistchurch.org.uk).

Closing date for final applications: May 31st 2021
