is seeking to appoint a Schools Worker for

Maternity Cover from 1 Sep 2021 – 31 Aug 2022

Re:generation seeks to introduce the Christian faith to children in the London Borough of Harrow and does this by direct contact in schools in collaboration with partner churches. We are seeking to grow this work by enhancing our relationship with our partner schools, supporting them in their work, engaging with schools that we do not currently visit and by further supporting the network of local church workers and volunteers.

To do this we require a dynamic and motivated individual working alongside our Schools Work Coordinator, to work across upper primary and lower secondary range. A clear ability to communicate and coordinate with a wide range of people is essential. We are looking for someone who is innovative and can help develop digital resources. Although there will be direct involvement with children and young people, we are seeking a person who is confident to delegate, envision, equip, train others and multiply the ministry.

Hours: Full time (37.5 hours), although a flexible arrangement can be agreed.

Salary: Full time - £24,600 p.a. or pro-rata.
